Insert Headshot Below:

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the applicant to insert their headshot.

Answer the following questions on a separate page, typed using single-spaced, 12 pt. Times New Roman font. Please restrict your responses to no more than two pages total in length, and make sure to put your UIN in the top right corner of each page (Do not include your name on these pages).

1. What is the difference between who you are today and who you would like to be in the future? In the past year, what strides have you taken to develop yourself into who you would like to be?
2. Write about a time you were served and how that experience changed your view of service.
3. You woke up this morning and were told you have to give a TED talk in an hour. What would you talk about?

Write a One-Page Application Letter:

This letter is an opportunity for you to share with The Century Men's Society whatever it is that you want to let the members know about yourself, your life, and the things that make you the person you are.

Although it is required to turn in an Application Letter, it will not be scored. It is intended to give one more opportunity for members to get to know applicants and for the applicants to share anything that they didn't get a chance to during the Admissions process. Be aware that letters are not anonymous and members of The Century Men's Society will read them before final selections. Be thoughtful in your letter and let it be a reflection of yourself, your personality, and your character. Please feel free to sign your name on this letter.

This letter may include but is not limited to:

- What drew you towards applying to The Century Men's Society
- Ambitions or goals you aspire to achieve in life
- A life-changing moment that gave you perspective
- What being a man of character means to you
- What inspires and motivates you
- What are you passionate about
- What role do Humility, Loyalty, Service, Traditions play in your life
- If selected, what you would contribute to The Century Men's Society

Letters should be in 12 pt. font, single spaced, and no longer than one page in length.

We appreciate your interest in applying to the Century Men's Society. If you have any questions, please contact the Internal Relations Officer, Sam Allen at centurymens.ir@gmail.com
